

Holiday POP UP Photo Ops

Join us for some holiday fun worthy of a few likes!

The elves at the City of Florence & Florence Habitat for Humanity have been busy creating some fun displays around town for you to enjoy!

Displays will be available starting the first week of December.

DO YOU SEE WHAT WE SEE?

You might not be able to visit Santa this year...
but you can sneak a photo in his sleigh.

We haven't seen the abominable snowman...
but his giant Adirondack chair has been spotted.

We've seen a few polar bears and have a suspicion they were delivering a giant giftbox.

The gazebo seems to have been transported to a snowy winter wonderland.

This might be Florence, Oregon... but we have spotted the North Pole and it's shining beacon.

Go find the cozy holiday fireplace...

And of course... don't miss the AMAZING light displays around town!
