

We are so grateful to have received plants from Siuslaw Watershed in February 2020 to use on Duncan Island. Together we planted them right by the river, in an area that had been overgrown with ivy and bamboo. What a great opportunity to teach our kids about the natural habitat and plant life right here in their own yard! Carla Twombly