Brief Overview of What You Wish to Discuss

Is the risk of crime, lost tourism revenue and potential high costs to Florence citizens (who will be very ticked off) worth it to house 21 individuals? Is it compassionate to the remaining ~180+ Florence homeless who will likely receive fewer services as Florence resources have to focus on the shelter?

Brief Overview of What You Wish to Discuss

Do we have enough information related to ongoing costs and where that funding will come from? Beyond the initial grant money, is there a commitment for additional funding and if so, how much and for how long?

What is the deadline for the decision and can the budgetary information be obtained and shared prior to a decision being made?

Will the jobs that are created for both the development and the ongoing support be filled with Florence residents?
