Chapter 3 – Public Comment, on Items Not on the Agenda

- 1. Open Meetings. Oregon Public Meeting Law guarantees the public a right to monitor the meetings of public bodies. It does not grant the public the right to interact with the public bodies during those meetings. Nevertheless, the Presiding Officer shall generally allow citizen comment within the orderly conduct of Council meetings, but the Presiding Officer has the right to deny it.

- 3. Speaker's Card. Persons wishing to speak during public comment must complete a 'Speaker's Card' online at least one hour prior to the Meeting time. The Speaker's Card may be submitted online or physically at City Hall to the attention of the City Recorder, to ensure their wish to comment is documented and to provide adequate time to communicate to the person's wishing to speak during the public comment time how the virtual option to participate in the meeting works.
- 4. Speaker Order. Generally, the speakers will be called upon in the order in which they have turned in their Speaker's Card. Should there be more speakers than can be heard for three minutes each during the 15-minute public comment period, the Presiding Officer may sort the requests to speak in order to afford the greatest opportunity for each topic to be heard.
- 5. Speaking Topics. Members of the public may speak about any topic, except as provided below.

6. Additional Speakers. In special circumstances, the Presiding Officer may allow additional persons to speak that have not completed a Speaker's Card, if sufficient time is left in the public comment period.
7. Questions of Speakers. Dialogue between Council and speakers is discouraged. Standard practice shall call for limited interaction with Council and speakers during public comment periods. However, after a speaker has addressed the Council, Councilors may ask clarifying questions of speakers during public comment. Councilors shall use restraint when exercising this option and shall attempt to limit questioning to no more than three minutes. The Presiding Officer may intervene if a Councilor is violating the spirit of this guideline.
8. Questions of Staff. After a speaker has addressed the Council, the Presiding Officer may ask staff to answer any question or correct misinformation. If staff does not have the answer readily available they will inform the Council of the need to research the issue and will follow up with the speaker and the Council with an answer.

If such a document contains the name, address, including email address, and telephone number of the person, then it will be included in the record of the proceeding. Because the name, address, including email address, and telephone number are part of a public record, this information will be generally disseminated to the public, and must be disclosed if a public records request is submitted for the documents. A person who believes such disclosure would present a danger to his or her personal safety, and who wishes to exempt his or her address, including email address, and telephone number from disclosure, must submit a written request for non-disclosure to the City Recorder pursuant to ORS 192.455(1).

4. Speaker Order. Generally, the speakers will be called upon in the order in which they have turned in their Speaker's Card. Should there be more speakers than can be heard for three minutes each during the 15-minute public comment period, the Presiding Officer may sort the requests to speak in order to afford the greatest opportunity for each topic to be heard.
5. Additional Speakers. In special circumstances, the Presiding Officer may allow additional persons to speak that have not completed a Speaker's Card.

6. Questions of Speakers. After a speaker has addressed the Council, Councilors may ask questions of speakers. Councilors shall use restraint when exercising this option and shall attempt to limit questioning to no more than three minutes. The Presiding Officer may intervene if a Councilor is violating the spirit of this guideline.
7. Questions of Staff. After a speaker has addressed the Council, the Presiding Officer may ask staff to answer any question or correct misinformation. If staff does not have the answer readily available they will inform the Council of the need to research the issue and will follow up with the speaker and the Council with an answer.

A person who believes such disclosure would present a danger to his or her personal safety, and who wishes to exempt his or her address, including email address, and telephone number from disclosure, must submit a written request for non-disclosure to the City Recorder pursuant to ORS 192.455(1).
